

WRECKAGE ASHORE WEST OF OSWEGO

Lifeboat Bearing Name of "Pennington" Indicates
Another Disaster.

Oswego, N. Y., Dec. 1.—A large amount of wreckage was washed ashore on the shore near Ford Island, a mile west of the port of Oswego, this morning. The wreckage consisted of the broken hull of a lifeboat, a life preserver, and broken boards and timbers. It was gathered up by a fisherman living alone in the vicinity in which it was washed ashore. The wreckage was not identified, and Captain Jackson was notified, and will keep the life preserver for the purpose of getting an exact description of it.

It was learned last night that the lifeboat was converted down the lake last year into a lighter by the Canada Steamship Company, and has been at work in Montreal harbor since that time. The wreckage was found at the lifeboat being John E. Pennington, a Montreal marine contractor, it had been taken to the lifeboat for New York as it had not been taken for New York to carry old lifeboats that formerly belonged to other vessels.

FOR A BETTER UNDERSTANDING
Lions Listen to Interesting
Address from W. C.
Mikel, K. C.

A largely attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Lions Club was held on Wednesday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce, with Major Pointon, president of the club, presiding. The speaker of the day was W. C. Mikel, K. C., the originator of the "Better Understanding" movement in Canada. A summary of Mr. Mikel's address follows:

Everyone will agree that a "Better Understanding" is of the greatest importance to Canada. It is the only way to bring the English-speaking people and the French-speaking people closer together. There is really no reason for trouble between the English and French Canadians. The English people of Canada are spending large amounts of money in the United States and the French people of Canada are spending large amounts of money in the United States. The English people of Canada are spending large amounts of money in the United States and the French people of Canada are spending large amounts of money in the United States.

The citizens cannot be the cause of any great that a relief committee is being formed to help the people.

REPLY OF LEADERS TO WAR VETERANS
Meighen Opposed to C.N.R. Reverting to Private Interests.
Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 30.—In a letter to the Hon. J. G. Macdonald, Meighen replies to C. G. Macdonald, president of the Canadian National Railway, who has written him asking that the railway be allowed to revert to private interests.

Meighen, in his reply, states that he is not in favor of the railway being allowed to revert to private interests. He says that the railway is a public utility and should remain in public hands. He also mentions that he has received many letters from war veterans and that he is doing his best to help them.

Meighen's reply is brief, it reads as follows:
"Your telegram twenty-eight days ago, in which you asked me to support the Canadian National Railway, has been received. I am sorry that I cannot do so, but I believe that the railway should remain in public hands."

British Attitude

In anticipation of a lively discussion on this subject before the conference, one of the highest British authorities to-night set out the British attitude as follows:

The submarine hardly can be used without being inimical to the progress of war; it is a gross abuse of the rule of war; it destroyed the rule of the sea and the non-belligerent as well as the crews on warships. The submarine is a legitimate use of the rule of war; it could be confined to operations against warships; it could not be used against merchant ships without violation of the rules of war.

Santa Claus is Coming SANTA CLAUS' MAIL BOX

In the mailbox of The Intelligencer this morning was a dainty little missive addressed to SANTA CLAUS, care of The Intelligencer. It is a direct message to the merry old joy-bringer and The Intelligencer is endeavoring to establish wireless communication with him so that the message can be relayed. Now all the little girls and boys who want to tell Santa Claus things can send in their letters to Santa Claus, care of The Intelligencer; drop them in the box through the slit in the front door; or ask the mail man, or the milk man, or the grocery man, or daddy, or big sister, or big brother, to mail the letter as directed. By Monday we will be in close communication with wireless with Santa Claus, and already, over the wireless, we begin to hear the merry tinkle of the bells upon Santa's reindeer, Francis, Dancer, Thunder and Vixen, as they speed over the snowy plains south of the North Pole with a huge sleigh full of goodly-goody things for goodly-goody boys and girls.

Come on with your letters, boys and girls, and we will try and do the rest, for Santa Claus will be willing and the wireless is working fine.

Here is the first message to get through direct to Santa Claus from Belleville, and you bet he will be pleased with it.

WANTS A BIG DOLLY.

Dear Santa Claus, I don't know where you are, dear old Santa, but Daddy says try the Intelligencer, it knows everything and everybody. I would like a big dolly, not a German one, and a sleigh and some candy and nuts, and Daddy says I'm hard to do the best you can. My name is Lady and Daddy calls me Lady Dumpy, and we live on Front Street upstairs.

THE DESIRE TO POSSESS

WE—every one of us—during the course of life's journey, reach certain periods where a desire becomes a necessity—when the limit has been reached and when dreams must materialize.

MUSIC is a craving which the majority of us experience. We hear it and we yearn for it.

THE sweet strains of music from the Phonograph of a neighbor has an effect near jealousy, but that effect is in reality only a desire to possess.

THEN is the time to decide—then is the time when your desire should take form.

DO NOT leave it until the music of Christmas comes floating from the abode of that neighbor, but come and make your decision now and possess a real instrument.

COMMANDS FLEETS ON TWO OCEANS

BY COURTESY OF C.P.R.

BY COURTESY OF C.P.R.

The story of Mr. Bosworth's rise to one of steady progress. Hard work was his program and promotion his objective. Born in the States, he came to Canada in 1882 to become Assistant Freight Agent of the Ontario and Quebec lines of the Canadian Pacific. Promotions followed steadily until he now fills the highest post in the Company's steamship service, as chairman of the Canadian Pacific Steamships, Limited.

Under his administration the Canadian Pacific boats did splendid war service, carrying troops—Americans, Americans and Canadians, to say nothing of herds of Chinese laborers to work behind the lines—and vast stores of munitions and food. A number were sunk but the Canadian Pacific quickly replaced them and has since augmented its fleet until Mr. Bosworth has today thirty-five in operation and two buildings. Among those recently acquired are four 7,000-ton ships. The Boeing Friedrichs and gust, 9,500 tons, retained the Munich, operated in the Mediterranean service; the Prinz Friedrich Wilhelm, 17,000 tons, and the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, 25,000 tons, remained the Empress of India and the Empress of Scotland, both being operated in the Atlantic service; and the Troilus, 10,200, remained in the Pacific service, now being converted into an all-gunner, which will be placed in the Pacific service, together with the Empress of Canada, Empress of Cuba and Empress of Russia, which will enable the Canadian Pacific to maintain a fortnightly service between Vancouver and the Orient.

Mr. Bosworth is a great believer in shipbuilding. All of the new ships built in the last few years have been built in Canada and the other large passenger carriers are being converted into all-gunners.

The steady increase in the tonnage of the Canadian Pacific fleet with the addition of five liners, the Empress of Canada and the Empress of Australia (recently built by Mr. George M. Bosworth, Chairman of the Company, which operates this part of the Canadian Pacific service).

POLITICAL REVOLUTION

UPSETS GOVERNMENT

END OF PROGRESSIVE MOVEMENT.

Liberals Returned With Substantial Majority — Solid Quebec Bloc for Mackenzie King Delivered in Full

—Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen May Resign at Once—
Premier and Eight Colleagues Defeated at the Polls

[illegible]

The defeat of the Meighen Government may be the best possible thing which could happen the Conservative party, which was in danger of getting waterlogged with too much title and too many hold-overs from Union Government, worthy citizens who never could be at home as active workers in the Conservative party, but who could find no welcome with the Reconcilables of their own party. It is to be hoped now that Sir Sturges Boyle, who has been so successful in peace and old-fashioned Liberals will find a cordial welcome with their own political presides, if their inclinations are that way.

Come back the Conservative party can mend its fences and come back stronger than ever. In opposition it can be wise and constructive criticism render valuable assistance in the government. In office it can be a more effective defeat administered to the aspirations of the so-called Progressives. It can come back the only sane and logical system of government, the party system, which is the only safe political program for Canada.

The career of Mr. Hon. Arthur Meighen in his own constituency is a matter for profound regret, but it has ample precedent in political history. Sir John A. Macdonald, Sir Robert Borden and other noted political leaders have suffered personal defeat through the necessity of neglecting campaigning at home for the national field. The Premier conducted a wonderful ability as a platform speaker and Canadian statesman. Noting ability as a platform speaker and a Canadian statesman. Notwithstanding the decision at the polls he stands out as the most able man in Canadian public life today and he will come back stronger than ever, for a seat will be found for him without doubt, as Canada can not afford to dispense with his services at

An Invalid Can Ride in an Auto.

The woman who can live outdoors and take vigorous exercise is usually healthy and well. But there comes a time in every woman's life when her nerves are so exhausted after the trouble is in the organs, especially the female. Worry, sleepless nights, headaches, pains and weakness of a distinctly feminine character will soon begin to bring the pale face, the dull eyes, the "crows' feet," the bagged look, and pains and aches in the back and limbs.

To retain the appearance of youth, a woman must retain health. Instead of looking, poor, and pale and aching, she should look like a healthy, happy woman.

Fioro's Favorite Prescription. This is the woman's temperance tonic and nerve which has had the approval of the thousands of women for over fifty years. It comes in liquid or tablet form, or—send two cents in stamps to the Laramie Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package of the tablets.

BABY, dear—I was suffering from a run-down system some ago, and was advised to try Fioro's Favorite Prescription. I tried it, took two bottles, and was restored to my natural strength. I cannot praise Fioro's medicines too highly, and will be willing to write to anyone needing similar advice.—Mrs. A. H. BARRY, R. I.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR CANADA IN CHINA

Washington Conference on the Use of Tariff Interest to Canada.

(By Ben Deane, Staff Correspondent of the Canadian Press.)
Washington, Dec. 9.—The question relating to China which are now under consideration at the Washington Conference should be of particular interest to the people of Canada. The Chinese people are now in a state of great importance in connection with the Chinese question. The Chinese people are now in a state of great importance in connection with the Chinese question. The Chinese people are now in a state of great importance in connection with the Chinese question.

This spokesman, who requested that his name be withheld, considered one of the world's greatest authorities on matters relating to China. He is a resident of thirty years in that country and has been closely associated with the Chinese people. He is a resident of thirty years in that country and has been closely associated with the Chinese people. He is a resident of thirty years in that country and has been closely associated with the Chinese people.

The industrialist of British Columbia will benefit particularly, he believes, and the result will be a new era of prosperity. The industrialist of British Columbia will benefit particularly, he believes, and the result will be a new era of prosperity. The industrialist of British Columbia will benefit particularly, he believes, and the result will be a new era of prosperity.

"Canada is becoming increasingly important in the world," he said. "Mr. J. W. Brown, who Trade Commissioner in Shanghai, has done remarkably good work in promoting the interests of the Dominion."

This spokesman agreed that most of the Chinese people will be in a position to be of a provincial character. This spokesman agreed that most of the Chinese people will be in a position to be of a provincial character. This spokesman agreed that most of the Chinese people will be in a position to be of a provincial character.

He said that this is essential, he says. They are not a bit better. They are not a bit better. They are not a bit better. They are not a bit better. They are not a bit better. They are not a bit better. They are not a bit better. They are not a bit better.

A tale of about six years in diameter is proper. There would be a single line with three stations at which the line would be divided to permit the passage of traffic in opposite directions. The mixture of the line would be required for the English Channel tunnel. The work would be completed, but it is believed that in Spain and France that the scheme is practicable. The Chinese are now in a position to be of a provincial character.

Some of the difficulties of the line will be understood when it is stated that the weight of the water on the tunnel would be tremendous, and the matter of resistance would be a big factor. However, it is said that the evaluation question has been solved. It is estimated that the temperature would be about 50 degrees Fahrenheit at the lowest level.

The maintenance of the soil, injection of cement, protecting pipes, the Chinese people are now in a position to be of a provincial character. The Chinese people are now in a position to be of a provincial character. The Chinese people are now in a position to be of a provincial character.

OPEN NEWS.

A large number of the members of the Ward Street Debating Club with their friends were last night present at the opening of the new club room at the corner of Ward and Front streets.

It proved to be a most enjoyable affair and all present were cordial and full that they were at home among the members of the club.

The object of the Club is to discuss all public questions of a social and literary every night. These sessions are sometimes not as harmonious as they might be.

and some good discussion upon the question of the day. Matter appearing in the Guelph Record was carefully considered and it is no divided line between the two groups of the club is always at its best.

In the next part of last evening's session a resolution was moved, and the part of the proceedings were well looked after by Mr. John Watt of the club.

After all that was well filled by the good things provided.

Among those present were Messrs. Haines, Anderson, Decker, Fisher, Johnson, Trevorton, Peter, and C. M. Kirk, C. M. D. D. P. and George Porter, Chairman of the club.

and Labor Council. A feature of the evening proceeding was a musical number by the Mayor which was most merited.

CHILDREN'S DANCE SUCCESS.

At the Johnston school of Danville last evening a social dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. Johnston's juvenile pupils in aid of the Children's Shelter which proved to be a success.

They were able to collect about for the first evening pupils. A splendid program was given by the dancing team and all between folk and solo dancers.

Mr. Johnston announced the total proceeds of the dance were $1.15. The money was presented to Mr. H. V. Kierkegaard, the following are the names of the little pupils who contributed to the fund.

—The last feature of the bill was a song by the little girls who contributed to the fund.

When the Alarm Clock Rings

ONE-HUNDRED ESSAYS ON HEALTH BY DR. W. M. REDICK

When the alarm clock rings it is bad enough. It is even worse when it is a warm comfortable home.

These frosty mornings, but it's worth while for you live.

A lazy liver is the alarm clock's natural enemy. It is the enemy of the alarm clock.

When the alarm clock rings it is bad enough. It is even worse when it is a warm comfortable home.

NEW PARLIAMENT OF MALTA, SIGNIFICANT

Marks the Introduction of a New Type of Government in the Colonial Empire

London, Dec. 14.—(By Canadian Press.)—In connection with the new Parliament of Malta, the Prime Minister of Malta has said that a good deal of significance is attached to the new phase of the development of the British Empire, which is the introduction of the new type of government in the colonial empire. It is the introduction of a new type of government based on the principle of representation, which has long been recognized in the Dominion, but which has not been fully developed in the interests of Imperial unity. It is the Colonial Council, composed of the representatives of the people, now being tried in Malta. It is the recognition of the principle that responsible government cannot be confined to the Dominion, but is now developing in every part of the Empire to the extent to which local conditions render it possible.

LOCAL CONDITIONS IN MALTA
Malta has local conditions which are very different from those of any other colony. It is a small island, with a population of only 100,000. It is a strategic position, and its importance as a local community. The other is the fact that this local community is one which, on every other ground would normally be entitled to administer its own affairs.

The Maltese are essentially South Europeans. As such their claim to political liberty would seem to be inalienable to good that of any of the other Mediterranean peoples. Sicilians, Greeks, Majorcan or Corsicans—who form part of the body politic of the island—have a right to the same rights as the Maltese. The Maltese people, however, have not been able to secure the same rights as the Maltese people, but they have been able to secure the same rights as the Maltese people.

A NEW CONSTITUTION

In spite of these conditions, the Maltese have received more than a merely representative government. The Legislative Council until 1917, in that year a new constitution was set up, which gave the Maltese a representative majority, but still retaining in the Imperial interests the executive power in the hands of the Governor and the British. The Maltese people, however, have not been able to secure the same rights as the Maltese people, but they have been able to secure the same rights as the Maltese people.

RESULT OF INVESTIGATIONS

The investigation was conducted by the Hon. Mr. J. A. Agius, Minister for the Interior, in June, 1917. The findings of the investigation were that the Maltese people were not satisfied with the existing constitution. The Maltese people, however, have not been able to secure the same rights as the Maltese people, but they have been able to secure the same rights as the Maltese people.

MAIN PRINCIPLE

The main principle of this scheme is the establishment of a new type of government in the colonial empire, which is the introduction of the new type of government in the colonial empire.

A Government for local affairs under the complete legislative and administrative control of the people of Malta, and a Government for matters of Imperial importance under the control of the Imperial Government. The sphere of the former is to be for the wider, and include the whole field of national life with the exception of certain specific matters. The chief duties of which are the drafting of the Constitution, the making of laws, and the execution of the laws. The sphere of the latter is to be for the wider, and include the whole field of national life with the exception of certain specific matters. The chief duties of which are the drafting of the Constitution, the making of laws, and the execution of the laws.

in. The Senate is composed partly of special representatives of the Church, the nobility, the University graduates, the Chamber of Commerce and the Trade Union Council, and partly of general representatives elected by the people in the manner of a limited franchise. Proportional representation is the basis for the election of the Lower House.

THREE LANGUAGES USED

Special care has evidently been taken in view of past experience, in securing an equitable and permanent basis for the common use of the three languages of the island, namely, Italian, English and Maltese. English and Italian are both recognized as official languages. English having a slight official precedence in the administration, and Italian a very definite priority in the Law Courts, while both are on a footing of complete equality in the Legislature and in education.

side-employment and seriously affected the revenue. It is possible that more might be done to develop local industries. Perhaps the most hopeful field of development is the new Maltese Government, which is the introduction of the new type of government in the colonial empire.

My nerves are strong as steel and the stomach is just about completely empty. I can sleep like a top and get up morning ready for the day's work. Tablets I sold in Belleville by Ontario's Drug Store.

BANDIT DE LUXE

OPERATES IN N. Y.

Jewel Robber Gets Diamonds Worth $5,000

From Jeweller.

New York, Dec. 13.—Practical efficiency was applied to one of the hold-up men today, when a bandit of the "Buffy" type, at the point of a revolver, stole diamonds valued at $5,000 from Michael Johnson, 220 E.

Broadway, after making a $100 deposit to insure the presence of his loot at the scene of the robbery.

Johnson, after being forced into

March at the point of a revolver, paid the ransom his own, plainly, but the gentleman who disappeared.

The hold-up man might be termed the bandit "de luxe." He entered the store last Friday, dressed in an expensive tailored suit, and carrying in his waist a small bag. He was looking like a good customer.

The man discussed the purchase of a $2,500 diamond ring, to be made to order. Johnson said he would like to order the stones. The bandit said he would return and inspect them.

At Johnson's request he made a deposit of $100 and gave the name of

"J. Brady, 100 Broadway." It was all an illusion—the jeweller suspected nothing when the man entered the second time.

Johnson took the ring to the safe and turned to find himself facing instead of a jeweller, a man with a command, into a back room. The customer then walked out with the ring.

Finance.

Ottawa, Dec. 13.—Arthur John

McIntosh, 35, of the post office general of the Federal Department of Finance, was arrested shortly before midnight last night on a charge of stealing the sum of $33,000 from the department of finance. He was arrested at the point of a revolver, after having been in the office for some time, when he was found with a large sum of money in his possession. He was taken to the police station and is now being held in custody.

JACKIE COOGAN in
"PECK'S BAD BOY"
"Peck's Bad Boy" with lovely Jackie Coogan is the stellar role, with the feature offering in "Critic's Sixth" to Saturday, with three presentations, featuring, morning matinee at 11 a.m., at which performance
Jackie Coogan could be considered, and the regular matinee and evening performance.
On the night of Saturday, Dec. 18, was a lot of trouble for the "Peck", and the "Critic's Sixth" by the way, Coogan is said to give an even more delightful and amusing performance which brought him triumph in "Critic's Sixth".
"Peck's Bad Boy" is an adaptation of the works of the late Governor Peck.
The production was invaluable humorist, Irvin. C. Cobb has been the star of the Apartment is report of Jackie in which includes David Ray, Wheeler Kavanaugh, James Corbett, Little Littler, Raymond Hight, "Critic's Sixth" by the way, Coogan is the production which gives his Broadway credit as a theatrical success center in the "Critic's Sixth".
Theater was unanimous in their praise of the old star and his independent production.

The Pittsburgh Penguins probably are quite anxious to make a good beginning and they probably realize that the Irish team will take a whole lot of beating.

MISS TUCK GOES ON RECORD AGAIN

Restored by Tania: Three Years Ago, Declares She May Find Fine Eternity.

Although it has been three years since Miss Olive Tuck, a popular young lady residing at 17 Bates Ave., Toronto, Ont., realized the wonderful pleasure of being Tania, she still feels pleasure in telling the public about it.

"At the time I began Tania, three years ago, I was so badly run down I seemed that I had no strength at all. I had no appetite, and was constantly having attacks of weak, dizzy, fainting spells, and just felt sick and tired in every way. Finally I got to where I was hardly able to sit up, and was very thin and weak."

"But I began taking Tania, and in little while my appetite picked up and I began gaining strength right along. My troubles soon left me altogether, and I was feeling just fine. At that time I was so enthusiastic about the medicine I made a statement about my experience, and as I am still enjoying the best of health, I feel free to go on record again. Tania has kept me feeling fine ever since. I have been healthy and strong ever since. I have been healthy and strong ever since."

MISSING BOOBS MAY NEVER BE RECOVERED
According to the latest report received from Ottawa, N. C. troops wherever has been found of the bodies of Capt. Harry Hamlin, last seen at the battle of Tannenberg, and Stanley Paine, a lad who was on the ship which was sunk at New York, which was last seen at the battle of Tannenberg.

Dr. John Hamlin, brother of Capt. Harry Hamlin, has been found of the bodies of Capt. Harry Hamlin, last seen at the battle of Tannenberg, and Stanley Paine, a lad who was on the ship which was sunk at New York, which was last seen at the battle of Tannenberg.

These making inquiries around Ottawa, but they fear they may not be able to recover any information. Owing to the lateness of the season, it is doubtful if any of the missing bodies will be recovered. A good deal of the wreckage of the steamer has been washed ashore at different points along the shore.

CANADIAN EX-SOLDIERS ARE WINNING THE BATTLE OF TURNING WASTE LANDS INTO FRUITFUL FARMS

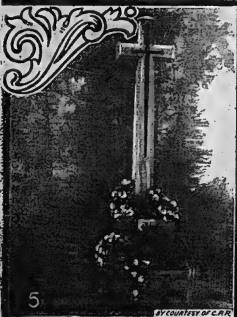

Good reports of Canada's success in re-establishing her soldiers as being spread far and wide, since what is the danger of other nations that have failed to make good provision for the men who risked their all in the cause of world liberty.

Canada put over half a million men into the field out of a total population of less than eight million people. With the return of the troops to civil life at the close of hostilities, the Canadian government has provided for the retraining of more than 300,000 men. The first step was to find each returning man and ascertain whether he would be able to earn his living by his own efforts. For those who had no job in view and refused to do so, to become farmers, assistance in obtaining work was given through work re-employment bureaus. Those who were disabled were given a return to former occupations, were given the opportunity of re-training, free of charge, in some trade or profession of their own choice in which their disabilities would not prove a handicap. The federal government was assisted in these schemes.

Statistics to the end of October, 1921, show that 27,143 returned soldiers have been settled on the land. Of these, 6,310 were settled on free lands without loans, while 20,833 were loaned to them, with a total of 27,143. The total area occupied by these soldiers is 1,000,000 acres, of which about one-third is free land. It is estimated that 100,000 acres have been broken over 800,000 acres of new land. So far, 42 have received their loans in full.

The Canadian Pacific Railway, as a larger and wider in the western provinces, and a center of doing business, has established a scheme for the settlement of returned soldiers as early as 1911. The plan comprised settlement upon im-

SANTA'S SPECIAL MESSAGE.

Here is a special message from Santa Claus to the Intelligencer: "As this will be the busiest Christmas season I have ever had, and there being a possibility that some of my shipments may break down, resulting in that saddest of all things, EMPTY STOCKINGS. I want you to tell all my little friends in Belleville to give special attention to Belleville, I'll be there about, by any possibility, be every stocking in Belleville on Christmas morn and all little hearts get in touch immediately with the Intelligencer, giving names and addresses. Don't wait to write; telephone 36 or 124, or 116, and all will be well. I am arranging to have a surprise stock of little kids in all Belleville need go without Christmas Eve, don't disappoint me, for if I hear of any empty stockings in Belleville I will be mortally offended. Goodbye, all, for now, and go to bed early Christmas Eve, for Santa can not work while little folks are prying about."

Dear Santa,
Will you please come to see me on Xmas as my back is out of work and I would like a big doll and set of dishes and some picture books. I guess I will cheer for this will do me for these other kids who is looking for Santa.

FOR IRELAND

Deputy O'Kelly Says There Will be Continued Fidelity Despite Treaty.

OPPOSES THE TREATY

Says Killings Will Resume, What Happens to the Treaty.

Special Despatch to The Intelligencer from Dublin, Dec. 22.—When the Dublin session began Deputy O'Kelly continued the debate, opposing the treaty, and declaring that the Irish Republic was far from dead. He asserted that the whole country was permeated by a sense of "Cope the cash." He said he was not a pessimist of the war in Ireland which the treaty was said to be rejected.

Richard B. Kelly, chief of staff of the National Army, declared that nobody wanted the treaty but that there was no alternative to its acceptance.

The Bonapart in America

Mon. Charles Joseph Bonaparte, nephew of the Nary, who was born recently at Baltimore, Maryland, under all the laws of primogeniture have been Napoleon VI., Emperor of France.

Legal men who have studied the subject assure me this is a fact.

That the Baltimore Bonapartes, as they are often styled, the Patterson-Bonapartes, are members of the imperial family, I am, of course, well known; but I am, of course, not well known with their correct places in the line of succession.

The Patterson-Bonapartes are descended from Jerome, the great Na-

There was also at one time a considerable colony of imperialist refugees settled in New York State, and it seems that efforts more or less serious were made to interest some French-Canadians in their schemes.

HOLDUP MAN ATTACKS CHATHAM TAXI DRIVER
Chatham, Ont., Dec. 22.—George Chatham, a local taxi driver, was the victim of an attempted holdup today. While he was waiting for a fare at the Grand Trunk station, he was accosted by a well-dressed man who asked him to make change. He obliged the stranger, exhibiting at the same time a roll of money. The stranger asked him to drive to the Dominion Sugar Company's plant in the west end of the city.

When nearing the station, the driver was suddenly attacked by the stranger, who, armed with a knife, forced him to get out of the taxi and to get into a nearby car. The driver was then driven to a house on the beach and partly dazed. He put up a fight, however, but became captives.

Lord Lee Presents Britain's
 Plea at the Armament Conference.

IS GIVEN NO SUPPORT
 All Five Powers Opposed to Sinking at Sight of Merchantmen.

Washington, Dec. 23.—Lord Lee today found himself completely alone in his demand for the total abolition of the submarine. Lord Lee, of Parkhill, first Lord of the Admiralty, made before the full committee on naval armament a strong statement in favor of the scrapping of all submersible craft. Delegates of the United States, France, Italy and Japan followed him with a list of replies of the proposal.

All five powers were agreed, however, that this conference should decide the sinking of sight of merchantmen was a hazardous offense. They will make no decision on the subject, but they will condemn the sinking of merchantmen, and they will agree that such a crime should be punished by hanging.

On behalf of the United States Secretary Hughes read the united reply of the American Government to the American declaration. The American reply was a strong statement of the American position as a defender of the rights of the sea.

To the Electors of the City of Belleville—

Ladies and Gentlemen: Having been requested by a number of the electors, representing all shades of public opinion, to offer myself as a candidate for the office of Mayor for the coming year, I have, desisted to do so, believing that no voice in the Council during the past year has rendered your approval, especially my efforts for economy and progress, together with a reduction of the assessment.

Having said my best endeavors to have the present session satisfactory, although not supported by a majority of the Council, I promise, if elected, that there will be no equal assessment will be among the first matter to be considered by the new Council. I believe all matters requiring a large expenditure of money should be eliminated in a vote of the electors, as the money must be supplied by them.

Soliciting your vote and influence.
I remain, my friends,
G. A. BENNETT.

To the Electors of Belleville:

I solicit your vote and influence for Mayor of 1922. I ask you to consider my past service to you, when I have at all times had your interest at heart. I am in favor of industrial expansion whereby we get an increased population and a better distribution of our assessment, a more satisfied people, and less unemployment.

I promise if re-elected to bring before your Council at an early date not only the assessment question, but the matter of equal or more importance as well in your consideration.

CHAS. HANNA.

TRAFFIC COPIES TO

WATCH SPEEDERS

Belleville, Ont., Dec. 28.—That next morning the Department of Public Works would start a campaign to check mechanics driving at unsafe speeds, the chief officers of the operating areas throughout the province, was the announcement of Hon.

A FLOOD OF GIFTS
Will Begin Married Life in Goldsborough Hall,
Yorkshire.

London, Dec. 31.—Interest in the betrothal of Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles continues to grow in this country, and the general public picks up news in connection with the future home-making of the Royal lady and her non-Royal lover with avidity. Plans for wedding gifts have taken possession of the people, and the gifts will be as varied as the numerous couple of gloves differ in their ideas with regard there. London Mail will make a gift to the Prince of Wales. The Prince has announced the opening of a fund for this purpose. To the said married people probably occur the uppermost questions in connection with the coming marriage is "Where will you live with the Prince and her husband propose to live" during the early part of their married life at Goldborough Hall, Yorkshire. Goldborough Hall is a red brick early Victorian house with a garden and garden which have an area of over 200 acres. The village of Goldborough is near the old town of Knaresborough.

Goldborough Hall is the property of the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Hartington. His himself lived there for fourteen years. For the past twenty years the manor has been occupied by W. W. Lamb, a Yorkshire magistrate, and his family. Mr. Lamb died on April 20, and

The future, country residence of Edward and her husband will be Harwood House, the home of the Lancelotti family. It is a stately mansion commanding fine views of the natural beauty of the area.

Many Royal associations, and the early Lords of Harwood were of royal descent. The name is said to be derived from Harwood-wood of the castle of Harwood, the battle of Harwood fought between Danes and Saxons. The Royal castle, which was built in the reign of Edward III, has long since been dismantled, but the ruins of the castle, with its numerous sculptured tombs, remain. The present mansion was built in 1760 for Edwin Lancelotti, who was created the first Baron Harwood in 1796. The cost of the building, at a cost of £130,000.

Heredwood House was enlarged and improved about sixty years ago and it is one of the best of the Italian garden on the south terrace was planned. The palace front affords a sweeping view of the city from the top of the hill, which were laid out as a famous "Tudor" garden.

The house is four feet wide, which was planted in 1782. The State apartments are handsomely decorated and furnished. The House are wonderful painted ceilings by Rubens, Moore and Zucchi; plaques by Kneller, and other fine pictures.

Lawsence; also a collection of china—largely Dresden—valued at over £300,000.

The Palace of Wales seated at Heredwood House last summer, the King and Queen were entertained there in honor of their visit to the United Kingdom.

Ladies to open the new University buildings. King Edward and Queen Alexandra were guests. The Prince of Wales and Princess Victoria had been before her accession to the Throne.

REGULATIONS FOR WATER-TUBE BOILERS

The voluntary work done in Great Britain in connection with standardization is known all over the world, and it has been supplemented by a considerable amount of enterprise in arranging rules and regulations in connection with the proper use of engineering equipment. One of the most recent examples is the set of rules prepared by a British committee to govern the installation and use of steam boilers in merchant vessels. These rules have received official approval, and will therefore become standard practice. This committee intends to continue its labors in other directions where "unified rules" are likely to be of advantage.

The Government's offer was previously provided by the Legislature in 1962. The Government has various districts to prosecute various cases as usual. Pessimistic views are held last spring to the effect that the fishing industry would be allowed to languish because of the prospect of a new fishing field that has not been realized, Hargreaves said. On the contrary, the Government has had an average one, which had been rapidly absorbed by the merchants of St. John's and the Government has been able to maintain a very little fish remaining in the hands of the fishermen and a larger proportion of the fish had been shipped to foreign countries. The Government has the same date for a quarter of the year, and as this situation has

DEATH RESULT

Injuries of William Jones Struck by Motor Car, Near Ivanhoe, Prove Fatal.

Mr. William Jones, who on Tuesday evening was struck by an automobile near Iravhoo, Huntingdon's Town, passed away on Friday afternoon about 4 o'clock without having gained consciousness, which rendered him unable to make any statements as to how the affair happened.

The victim of the unfortunate at Iravhoo was about 60 years of age and was a bachelor. Whittier Marston, who lives on the home he had been staying for some time with his police, Mr. Clarence Jones, whose home is adjacent to Iravhoo's home, early Thursday evening Mr. Jones left his niece's home and about one o'clock Mr. George Johnson of Massena and two companions in a car with the new Mrs. Jones' living upon it. The car was driven to the residence of the latter, who took the man to the home of her brother, Clement and medical aid was summoned. Dr. Egglestone of Madoc visited the man, responding to the call. All that medical aid could suggest was done for the man, but the cause of his death was the nature that fatal results were anticipated.

The "Providence Officers' Nephew" Nugent were insured to investigate the affair and from inquiries made ascertained that the man was a colored man. Whose car struck Jones has not been ascertained. Mr. Johnson and his car company firmly assert that it was the car they were riding in.

Dr. Kindred, corner of Third and Washington streets, was called upon and directed an inquest to be held. Constable St. Charles of Madoc summoned a jury and on Friday evening the inquest was resumed at the hotel. The jury was composed of the following taken, was the "verdict of the body."

the jury and adjournment being arranged for a few days. At present there is an air of mystery about the case, but it is generally expected that the court will be well satisfied that it will eventually clear up.

Electors in City Hall.

NO FIREWORKS
No Harsh Criticism or Rash Promises—More of a Dress Parade.

That the electors of Belleville are evincing much interest in the municipal election which will take place on Monday, was shown on Friday night, when a final meeting was held in the City Hall. The hall was filled to its capacity and a number were compelled to stand. A few ladies were in the audience, which was exceptionally attentive.

tionally all the atheromatic conditions were removed from the arteries and all were cordially received.

Ald. Ostrom, as Chairman of the Executive Committee, gave figures as to the indebtedness of the city and its assets and showed that the city was by no means overburdened financially and that some would believe it to be. The recent sale of delinquent was a proof of this.

Ex-Mayor Vermillion was chairman of the meeting and fulfilled his duties in a capable manner.

CITY FINANCES

Ald. Ostrom was the first speaker and referred to the three years he had served in the Council. He had tried to render the best of his services to the city. The speaker referred generally to the financial condition of the city, presenting the following statement:
